GOOD PRICES FOR BURLEY.

ing Realized by Madison County Growers.

IT, STERLING, Ky., Nov. 19.—A white burley tobacco is selling in Madison county at enormously high prices. The quality of the tobacco is excellent, and the weight is heavy. There are three buyers in the field, a representative of a Lexington warehouse, an American tobacco buyer, and A. R. Robertson, representing a Louisville warehouse. The tobacco is being eagerly sought for by the buyers, and the prices being paid are better than that received by the growers in many years. The prices range from 13 1/2 to 17 cents a pound, and over 1,000,000 pounds have been sold at an average figure of 15 1/2 cents per pound. Madison county was one of the few counties in the burley district in which the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association was very weak, and an immense crop of tobacco was grown by independent growers. The growers have reaped a fine income owing to the high price being paid for the tobacco on account of its scarcity.

ARTY ACRE FARM SELLS FOR $4,000

Stock, Crop and Land of Ed. Adams, Near Becknerville Bring Good Prices at Auction.

Quite a large crowd attended the sale of stock, crop and land of Ed. Adams, near Becknerville Wednesday. The bidding was brisk and a satisfactory price was obtained for nearly everything that was offered. J. H. Bush, the auctioneer, who conducted the sale reports the following good prices on some of the lots. The farm of 40 acres was sold to Mrs. A. C. Woodford for $4,000. One six-year-old mare horse for $125; one aged mare horse for $125; one five-year-old mare horse for $125; one cow for $25; eight fat hogs for $4.75 to $5.95; fourteen small calves, $1.40 per head; corn in the field, $2.35 per shock and fodder lots per shock.

Saturday—75 dress shirts for 43 cents at Bloomfield's.

FRUITS SELLING HIGHER.

The housewife will have to pay for her fancy foodstuffs this Thanksgiving than she has for the past seven or eight years as fruits and other like fancy goods are unusually high. Everything is taking a jump and some record prices are being set within a short time. With in the last few days apples have jumped from $3 a barrel to $4.00, while cranberries are very scarce and higher than they have been for many years. Bananas are selling high, while grape fruit, oranges, pineapples and pears are bringing good prices above the ordinary. One fruit dealer said that fruit will be unusually high this winter, probably on account of scarcity caused by the drought.

DODGE.

There will be a change of agents this depot Saturday, Mr. C. Fuller, agent here will accept a position East on the C. & O. Mr. R. Northcutt will relieve Mr. Fuller momentarily, both being employed by C. & O. Railway Company. People in this section of the country are making fine progress towards reaping their corn during the pre-weather.

Many people are killing hogs. Mrs. C. E. Yearly spent Wednesday in Winchester with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Sims.

Mrs. M. E. Murphy has just returned from a pleasant visit with her son, Mr. John Murphy, of Hamilton, Ohio, who is employed there in the railway service.

COMMUNICATIONS

(Under this head the Editor of The Winchester News invites anyone to contribute on subjects of general interest. The Editor does not necessarily agree with any communication published. Editor of The News.)

Facts Tell.

Winchester, Nov. 18.
Editor of The News:
Some person signing himself "Temperate" and publishing his cards in the Lexington Herald has been trying to provoke me to a discussion. I have made it a rule never to engage in a controversy with a person who is either to his productions. But to show the truthfulness and groundless charges retailed over the country by the rum crowd, I ask you to publish the following from the fearless and model mayor of Richmond, Ky., Hon. C. E. Woods, who has set the whole State an example of what a clean and courageous mayor can do.

Very truly,
H. K. TAYLOR.

The communication is as follows:
Mayors Office,
Richmond, Ky., Nov. 10, 1908.

Editor Morning Herald:
Please allow me the same place you gave to the brave man who hides behind the virtuous name of "Temperate" in your Sunday issue. His slurs at this city, which he cites as an example of non-enforcement of anti-liquor laws, would have weight if they were either true or fathered by one who dares to own his identity. In the enforcement of the local laws I have encountered just such difficulties as this creature presents—cowardly evasion and hypocrisy combined—two enemies of law and truth which defy the laws of God and man.

The particular paragraph to which I take exception, and which I shall answer with court records, is this from "Temperate's" inspired epistle: "Prof. H. K. Taylor ignored his neighboring prohibition town of Richmond. Has Professor Taylor any idea of the amount of red liquor which Winchester furnishes the dry town of Richmond every day, or every week?"

My answer shall be brief. Here are facts:

"Hon. J. M. Benton, Circuit Judge Richmond, Ky.:
"The grand jury begs leave to make the following report. We wish to congratulate the people of Madison county for the fine moral character that now exists in this county, which we attribute to the closing of the saloons, and the general crusade made against whiskey. No murders are now on the docket of the Circuit Court, and, in fact, there were scarcely any felonies brought to the attention of your grand jury for the present term. We take pleasure in commending Richmond's excellent Mayor, Clarence E. Woods, for his vigilant and efficient work in attempting to rid the city of all violators of the law.—W. T. Griggs and W. D. Arnold, foremen of two grand juries."

Now for concrete facts: During the last year under high license with 12, 1,000 saloons, 600 men were arrested for drunkenness. Under local option for 12 months, only 101. On an April county court day before local option 35 drunks were landed behind the bars and twice as many escaped arrest! For the next six court days only 6 men altogether were drunk.

Nay, nay, drunkenness and disorder, crime and vagrancy have been reduced to the vanishing point. Our jails are so nearly vacant that the candidate for re-election as jailer appeals for support in his cards on the grounds that he has received less than one-third of the fees formerly paid. The white and colored schools are overcrowded and more public and private improvements are in progress than since Richmond was founded.

Respectfully,
C. E. WOODS, Mayor.

WHISKY ASSESSMENT IS $10 PER BARREL.

Tentative Arrangement is Made On the Kentucky Product.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 19.—The tentative assessment on whisky in Kentucky yesterday was fixed at $10 a barrel. The State Board of Valuation and Assessment met and fixed the assessment at $10. This is not final, and the whisky men have 30 days in which to file protests and try to have the assessment reduced.

It is contended by the board that the price of whisky has gone up, and that the liquor is worth more than $8, the old valuation.

Saturday—25-cent children's hose for 12 cents at Bloomfield's.

TOBACCO SALE IS TO BE SETTLED THURSDAY

American Tobacco Officials and Burley Representatives Are to Meet.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 19.—The largest tobacco deal in history will either go through today or the opportunity for it be refused by the Burley Tobacco Society when Messrs. R. K. Smith, H. R. Walker and John Middleton, of the American Tobacco Company and their attorney A. J. Carroll, of Louisville, meet in conference with President Clarence LeBus and others of the Burley Tobacco Society's Executive Board at the Louisville Hotel, in Louisville.

When the offer of the American Tobacco Company was made last Friday in Louisville members of the Burley Society asked for time for consideration, and today was set for a renewal of the conference.

President LeBus Here.

'President LeBus was registered at the Phoenix Hotel here last night, but declined to see a representative of The Herald.

The action of the Executive Board at Winchester in the matter of fixing prices on the several grades of tobacco of the 1907 crop has been closely kept, and it is believed that the board took up and finally decided the question of accepting the offer of the American Tobacco Company. There is some question about the amount of tobacco included in the offer.

Matter Up to Decide.

The offer is said to have been made by the American Tobacco Company, and it is up to the Burley Society to pass on it. The offer of the American is said to have been for 12,000,000 pounds of the 1906 crop at prices ranging from 21 to 24 cents a pound, and for the 1907 crop of 60,000,000 pounds at prices about 16 cents a pound. This will make a total of between $12,000,000 and $14,000,000.

An impression seems to have gotten abroad through the burley district that the offer was for a total of 48,000,000 pounds and not for the total of the two crops, and that it is upon this that the Executive Board hesitated and has since debated.

Much Money Involved.

Should the American pay the amount of its offer in cash, it will mean a flood of money for Kentucky. It would practically all go to the burley district in the central part of the State and would be paid into the banks of this section which have been holding the tobacco growers' paper since the burley pool was started and tobacco was tied up.

The millions would be a tremendous relief to this section, where money has been scarce owing to the failure to get the usual returns from the tobacco crops. Practically every resident of the great burley section, comprising forty-three Kentucky counties, has felt the stringency.

The thousands of tobacco growers, their tenants and helpers have had their funds curtailed, and this situation has, of course, affected every line of business.

If the deal goes through it will be the biggest transaction in tobacco ever known, and it will be one of the largest business deals involving a commodity of this kind in the history of the world.

Saturday—$5.00 and $4.00 plain knee pants suits for $2.98 at Bloomfield's.

REFUSES TO AID PROSECUTION.

Cousin of Slayer of Carmack Gives Up His Office

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 19.—The latest development in the Carmack case is the resignation of Albert W. Stockell as assistant to Attorney General McCann. Young Stockell is a cousin to young Robin Cooper and a nephew of Col. Duncan B. Cooper, and it is said the resignation grows out of this relationship to these defendants, who are to be prosecuted in the Criminal Court for the murder of ex-Senator Carmack.
